

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20268-0001

Before Commissioners:

Robert G. Taub, Acting Chairman;
Tony Hammond, Vice Chairman;
Mark Acton;
Ruth Y. Goldway; and
Nanci E. Langley

Periodic Reporting
(Proposal Thirteen)

Docket No. RM2015-7

ORDER GRANTING REQUEST FOR ACCESS

(May 29, 2015)

On May 22, 2015, Amazon Fulfillment Services, Inc. ("Amazon") filed a motion pursuant to 39 C.F.R. § 3007.40 requesting access to two nonpublic documents filed by the United States Postal Service in this docket."¹

Amazon requests access to this nonpublic information on behalf of seven individuals. Two of the seven individuals are outside counsel for Amazon and the remaining five are economic consultants. Motion at 1-2. Included with the Motion are copies of Appendix A of 39 C.F.R. part 3007 signed by each of the seven individuals, acknowledging their willingness to comply with protective conditions. Id., Appendix A.

Amazon states that it is authorized to represent that the Postal Service does not oppose its request.

¹ Motion of Amazon Fulfillment Services, Inc., for Access to Two Nonpublic Documents Filed by the United States Postal Service, May 22, 2015, at 1 (Motion).

The unopposed Motion of Amazon is granted and the seven individuals named in the Motion are hereby given access to the two Postal Service documents identified on page one of the Motion.

It is ordered:

1. The Motion of Amazon Fulfillment Services, Inc. for Access to Two Nonpublic Documents is granted.
2. Effective upon issuance of this Order, the seven individuals named in Amazon's Motion are each granted access to the two nonpublic documents identified on page one of the Motion.

By the Commission.

Ruth Ann Abrams
Acting Secretary